CHARACTER TRAIT: RESPONSIBILITY

January 3, 2012

Dear Parents,

Happy New Year to all and welcome to 2012! We pray that your holidays provided time for you to relax and enjoy your family and friends. We are all blessed with many gifts, most importantly the gift of the Christ Child in our lives and the gift of each other. May this year bring you and your family many more blessings.

As we return, we begin our focus on January's Character Trait: Responsibility. It is quite appropriate that as we begin a new year and the final half of this second quarter, students, teachers and parents alike have time to reflect on setting goals and making resolutions on what we would like to do better this year. It is a time for taking responsibility for our own success, accepting and overcoming stumbling blocks, and starting anew each day. We invite you to join us in encouraging your child to become that responsible student, person and most of all, a follower of Christ.

FROM THE OFFICE

We will be re-sending the January calendar in case you may have misplaced your copy sent home before Christmas break. It is a full month with special meetings coming up next week to review ITBS results and ending with the celebration of Catholic Schools Week.

Thank you to all who have taken care of their January tuition payment. This is due by the end of the week. The office thanks you for your prompt attention to this.

A reminder that hot lunch order forms for this two week period went home before Christmas vacation. If you did not place your order, please remember to pack a sack lunch for your child.

PTG NEWS

Welcome back! We hope that your vacation time was a good one.

We want to thank Gracie Gagliano, Lisa Richardson and all of Santa's helpers that assisted with Santa Shop. We raised $973 from this effort. Thank you to all for your support.

Thanks goes out to all as well for your support of our scrip program. Over $10,000 of sales were placed prior to Christmas. Keep up the great work. We thank the Kindergarten parents for their time in providing assistance at Coffee & Donuts this week and selling scrip after Masses throughout the month of January.

There are many events coming up. We look forward to your continued participation.
